

These are the Weber County census tracts that qualify within the 14% unemployment threshold using the ASU methodology under one alternative scenario or another. Multiple scenarios exist due to the nature of the census-share methodology used in the unemployment rate calculation.

